ABOUT THE LOS ANGELES JEWISH HOME

Founded in 1912, the non-profit Los Angeles Jewish Home is among the largest providers of senior healthcare services in Los Angeles. Through its innovative Connections to Care program, each year more than 4,500 seniors benefit from the Home's community-based and in-residence programs. The Home is a non-sectarian organization where 70% of seniors served are financially limited and rely upon government assistance.

ABOUT THE EXECUTIVES OF THE LOS ANGELES HOME

Comprised of more than 400 prominent business, community, and political leaders, The Executives is committed to raising funds to ensure there will always be a safe, healthy, and loving environment for the elderly in Los Angeles. Over the last 27 years, The Executives has raised over $12 million for the seniors of the Los Angeles Jewish Home.
